Protecting Your Vital Rights: What You Should Know About Accident Injury Settlements

Synopsis

This book describes important facts that you should know about accident injury cases and claims. This book helps detail important facts and rights, and how one can protect them. It also describes how to pursue an injury claim, and how to negotiate and settle a claim with an insurance company. Included are all vital areas; from selection of doctors, to handling property claims, to compiling a settlement demand and then ultimately negotiating and settling the claim. Also included are important areas that are not normally discussed or dealt with; either in books or by attorneys. Areas such as negotiating down medical billings after the conclusion of the claim, is an important area that can put thousands of additional dollars into one's pocket at the conclusion of their claim. Areas such as this and others are included and are important areas (which help enable netting the most money from the overall settlement, and are areas very often not even covered by attorneys handling claims). All of this is included in the low price of the book. Many people find the book helpful and useful, especially those wishing to handle their own accident claims without spending 1/3 to 1/2 of their settlement on an attorney. This book makes great gift, and is a nice addition to a home reference library.
