First year law student here and this was a nice tool to have. Basically, reading the brief prior to doing your actual readings can help to give you a heads up of what to pay attention to before delving into the details.

Great supplement to the Dressler casebook. I used it for quick, in class, case synopses, or as a way to pre-read a case for better understanding.

Had one of the cases we studied Not helpful

If you are in Law school get this! PERIOD !
